TIME TABLE 2020-21

: INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHING (VISITING AND FULL-TIMER) STAFF:

1. Professors of particular subject to whom lectures are allotted should come in time and should finish their lectures within stipulated time. Lectures shall be conducted only through offline mode.
2. Collect Academic Diary from Mrs. Pallavi Khot from Admin. Office. Show and take signatures on Academic Diary on every Monday of a week of Principal without fail.
3. Failure to observe punctuality of Time by Professors creates bad impression among students. If the students of a particular class remain unattended for some time, then they start making noise and it causes annoyance to other professors and students who are at work. So also, lecture should be concluded at the specified time, so as to ensure that time of subsequent lecturer is not encroached upon. Strict adherence to time table should be maintained.
4. For taking leave on any ground, prior permission of principal should be obtained and such faculties should co-ordinate with other teaching faculty and make alternate arrangements, so that the class does not remain unattended.
5. Due to some unavoidable reason, any teaching faculty is unable to reach on time for the lecture, then expeditious intimation be given to Principal and/or Time Table in-charge so as to take necessary steps.
6. All Professors should take attendance regularly and should prepare a black-list of students who are absent for more than 10 days in a month and report of such black listed students should be submitted to the Principal at the end of each month.
7. Last date for completion of syllabus of all subjects is 14th May, 2022 and therefore all teaching staff are directed to complete the syllabus of allotted subject as per deadline. Syllabus should not be get completed before time too.
8. Professors of each subject should come for supervision during examination and paper-assessment.

Subject: Non-Compliance with Attendance Policies - Defaulter Letter

Dear Bahire Kishor Narayan,

We regret to inform you that you have been found in non-compliance with the attendance policies set forth by the college. It is important to adhere to these policies to ensure your academic progress and maintain the standards set by the college.

According to our records, your attendance for the 1st year LL.B. has fallen below the required minimum attendance of seventy-five percent (75%). As of the end of January 2022, your average attendance for the course stands NIL. This falls short of the minimum requirement and puts your academic standing at risk.

As per the attendance policy, defaulting learners are issued warning letters as a means to rectify their attendance record. This letter serves as an official warning regarding your attendance deficiency. We urge you to take immediate action to improve your attendance and fulfill the minimum requirements.

Please be aware that persistent non-compliance with the attendance policy may result in serious consequences, including but not limited to the following:

- Ineligibility to appear for end-of-semester examinations.
- Loss of academic credit for the course.
- Possible cancellation of your enrolment at the college.

We strongly advise you to review the attendance policy notice and take the necessary steps to rectify your attendance record. We understand that there may be legitimate reasons for your absence, and we encourage you to communicate any such reasons to the college administration within seven days from the receipt of this letter.

Bhagubai Changu Thakur
College of Law, New Panvel

If you wish to appeal the decision or discuss your situation further, please schedule an appointment with the In-charge of Attendance Committee, Assistant Professor Bhagyshri Kamble, by visiting the college administrative office.

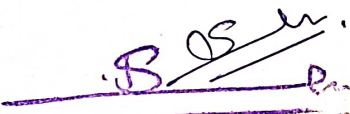

Please note that it is your responsibility to comply with the attendance policies and make every effort to rectify your attendance deficiency to avoid further consequences.

We sincerely hope that you will take this matter seriously and make the necessary improvements in your attendance. Your active participation and regular attendance are vital for your academic success.

Thank You.
